Brant Arts I.D.A. DISPENSARY Women's Health Program

What is a Menopause Practitioner?

Founded in 1989, the North American Menopause Society (NAMS) is North America's leading non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the health and quality of life of women through an understanding of menopause. Only those medical practitioners who pass a competency exam and demonstrate their expertise in the field are awarded the credential of NAMS Menopause Practitioner. Ongoing continuing education is required to maintain this credential. Carolyn Whiskin and Kerry Roberts are both practicing pharmacists who received their designations as Menopause Practitioners in 2005.

Carolyn Whiskin, RPh BScPharm NCMP

As a motivational speaker, Carolyn gives seminars across Canada to health professionals and the public on various therapeutic topics. She has appeared on radio and television and is a founding member of the Pharmacist-Physician Collaboration Committee in Burlington. Carolyn has won national awards for patient care.

Kerry Roberts, RPh BSc BSc(Hons)Pharm NCMP

Kerry has served on many committees for the Ontario College of Pharmacists. Like Carolyn, Kerry is a founding member of the Pharmacist-Physician Collaboration Committee. She is a reviewer and presenter for continuing education programs for pharmacists. In addition, she has taught pharmacy students at the University of Toronto.

How to Book

No physician referral is required. Our Team works with your physician and as such, we recommend you inform them that you will be visiting our office. Before booking an appointment, women are required to complete a suggested list of blood tests and a Women's Health Questionnaire. Appointments are booked a minimum of one week following blood tests. To book a consultation, please contact us at (905) 637-3833 or consultations@brantarts.ca.

Women's Health Consultations are not covered under OHIP. Our Program can qualify as a benefit under some private insurance plans: please contact your insurance provider. For our current fee schedule, please contact us.
